Jeffrey,

On July 7th Jay White and I called Joe Ackerman to let him know=that a hearing was coming up on fees and to ask him for some information relat= to divisions of fees. Today I got a phone call from James Hurley who is Genera= Counsel for Fowler White.

Hurley told me that is was firm policy that he vet all requests that a firm member testify. I explained the situation and he seeme= satisfied. He stated that he will ask Joe to return our call and cooperate.

At the end of the conversation he asked if Joe would be=20 compensated for his time in preparing to testify. This would be SOP bu= I know there was some unpleasantness during the separation so I wanted to che=k with you before committing. We will need the testimony of someone from=20 Fowler White and Joe seems to have had the most involvement.
