Waiting for [REDACTED] to call me back - m=eting her tonight if she isn't too tired.

The most=awkward moment of this week - we have a group messaging app with the other s=mmmer fellows we work together - one guy sent a photo from the hospital sayi=g that his wife has just given birth - I didn't bother to read the comment (=as long and boring) and thought that something had happened and posted a co=ment "I am so so sorry. Lmk if there is anything I can do to help!" K=rma;{(

All the best, [REDACTED]
