Jeffrey,

I said more then ten thousand. I perfectly understand Cartier but this m=kes me sick. It's the first time someone makes me weight what I have b=ught when it was offered as a present. When you decide to give your card t= someone and say:"buy what you want" ( shoes and belts, this is =hat I bought ) I assume you mean what you are saying. Asking for the price=later on is not very elegant. I felt really uncomfortable. If the money wa= such a problem for you, you could have told me and give me a budget =nd I would have fitted in it. In this case I would have perfectly understo=d. I really appreciated the act of landing me your card but if I would hav= none that this would have been your reaction to it, I wouldn=#39;t have bought anything at all. Sorry, it was my mistake.
