Mr. Kahn,

I was able to rearrange =ichael's calendar and while 11:30 would work better, he can =eet at 11:00am if that were more convenient for your client.

Thanks.

Dear Mr. Kahn,

Per your conversation with Michael Liebeskind this afternoon, I am writing to offer time for him to meet with you and your client next week. The options listed below assume that the meeting will be held in New York City. Please let me know if my assumption is correct or if the meeting might be out of town so I may plan accordingly:

Wednesday, July 1st at 11:00am or 12:00pm

Thursday, July 2nd at 11:30am or 4:30pm

I will hold the above dates and times until I hear from you. Please let me know if there is anything further I can do to assist with scheduling this meeting.

Thank you.
