Jeffrey:

first, your last phone call meant so much because it =emonstrated once again that you care deeply about me as a person, =ndependent of the rest. Enough said, but thank =ou.

second, Lowell Sachoff, who is a retired trial lawyer and was =he only person on the board of the bulletin who voted against asking me =o resign, called me yesterday, and I think I alluded to that call. =nbsp;Today he called me again to clarify his position, which you will =e pleased to know, resonates with your own. he said I should get =egal advice, but absolutely not have a lawyer represent me in the =niversity proceedings.. for much the same reasons as you =ndicated. Lowell has represented people in similar =ircumstances.. and he said what he tells his clients to say is that =E2 I have talked to lawyers about representation and they all say =he same thing: You don't need me".." =nbsp;

Anyway, Justin got back to me and said he is happy to talk to =ou this weekend (he knows of course who you are)
