Julius Baer to take preliminary provision of USD 350 millio= for its eventual settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice regarding=its legacy U.S. cross-border business

Today, Julius Baer has anno=nced its decision to take a preliminary provision of USD 350 million for i=s eventual settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) regarding =ts legacy U.S. cross-border business.

Zurich, 23 June 2015 ◆=93 The decision to take a preliminary provision at this time is the result=of Julius Baer's recent discussions with the DOJ regarding its eve=tual, comprehensive and final settlement of the DOJ's investigatio= of Julius Baer's legacy U.S. cross-border business. These settlem=nt discussions have now sufficiently advanced to enable Julius Baer to mak= a preliminary assessment of a probable and approximate amount required to=reach a settlement with the DOJ.

<=r>

The preliminary provision of USD 350 million will=be charged to the 2015 half-year results. If the amount had been provision=d at the end of April 2015, the Group's BIS total capital ratio wo=ld have been 20.9% and its BIS tier 1 capital ratio 19.6%.

Noting that estimates a=e by their nature based on judgment, currently available information and a=variety of other factors, the amount of the provision reflects Julius Baer=E2◆◆s existing understanding and the present state of the preliminary =iscussions with the DOJ regarding the amount of an eventual settlement and=may be subject to change. Whilst there is no defined timetable for a final=settlement, Julius Baer continues to work towards closing this regrettable=legacy issue as soon as possible.

=br>

Julius Baer's 2015 half-year results wil= be published on 20 July 2015.
