gromov. a carpenter only sees hammer and nails. =C2 - is the conundrum any different than the question =of what makes something alive? looking at the structure alone most o= the time one can tell if that something was probably once alive. =A0

2 Ill get some questions from ehud for you. He is alway= open to changing his mind, thats why we get along so well.

I looked through it. =A0 It seems that about 90% is showing off how much mathematics he knows, w=th little if any application to any problem in the natural world. I nat=rally looked longer at the parts on language. Lots of grand claims a=out what he will show, but no indication that he has a clue even what the =roblems are. Lots of references to Kanzi, Piranha, Lenneberg, etc., but without a hint of comprehension of what is a= stake.
