I have just been advised by Jet Aviation that we can expect release to service Thursday 9 July or Friday 10, due to delayed parts. If the Parts for the AD arrive on Thursday, we have a better chance

I'm sure if you pre-pay for the round trip flight, and the aircraft is released to Service it can be done. The only problem is that I don't think you'll agree to the costs associated and last time they moved mountains for you to bring the aircraft to St. Thomas and you people didn't agree with the Seller's cost.
