Dear Richard,

Today, Ann promised =e to help me sending the photos.

The final treatment on the col=mn is, as the decorations on the columns were waxed for decades. Now, thi= leaves the marks on the surrounding areas, so when you look at =hem, looks like more work was done to the columns. This is quite radical t=eatment, as I did many times in Connecticut. Well, many customer= asked me to distress the surfaces on the top of this, but I did not do an=thing like this in the Library. Here are the photos, and please give me some feed back, thank you.
