Well, we wen= to the store, but the all stores were closed. I suspect, tomorrow will be t=e same, I do not know.

The problem that I had was with Mr. Epstein. The pictures that Ann took on her camera, some of them were OK but some o= them were brown.

I showed you the photos I took before I w=nt to NY, there was a lot of pictures brown. Mr. Epstein did not understand=the brown color. He thought, I am re-doing his Library to his dis=leasure. It was emergency and I corresponded with him till 10:30 last night=trying to explain to him that the photos are wrong. How can you explain, th= photos did not depict real color? In this case did not, and Mr. Epstein wa= furious, to say at least.

Today, after the Mass, I took some pic=ures on my Canon Camera and they came out well. He quieted himself after lo=king at them, but asked me about what do I intended to do in his Library. A=ter explaining everything he was OK. This is not very easy project for me. M=. Epstein did not communicated with me from the beginning and mistakes took=place. Right now, we are on the road to the finish.

Kindly,
Brandon

PS. I spoke to TJ. I asked him whether he could retu=n to his wife. He told me, he has four children with three different wives.=So, I asked him again, if he would go back to one of them. He told me there=is a possibility he could go back to the first wife. When I was going to NY= he asked me if I can bring him a girlfriend. I do not play games, so I tol= him: TJ you had three wives and you have four children to support, what ki=d of girlfriend would go with the man like this. He got mad, as I devalue h=m at this point. I will not say anything anymore. I just do not understand t=inking like this.
