Jeffrey, I honestly wish there was something more I could do for you than just send you my most loving thoughts and wishes.=.

You've made so many people's lives so much better, mine included. You've helped so many when they were in desperate need.

I remember Lesley telling me that [REDACTED] had told her that you had rescued them from poverty and she was so grateful to you. Before you came along, the question had not been what was for dinner, but if there was dinner at all... I'm so sorry that people have such short memories and I'm sorry the world doesn't know what a generous, empathetic and brilliant man you are.

You are the highlight of my life.

Always with love,

[REDACTED]
