Dear UN Summer Study Participant,

Congratulations on your acceptance into the 2015 United Nations Summer Study Program in the Graduate Program in International Affairs at The New School.

Now that you have been admitted, here are the next steps:

Fill out the UN Study Acceptance Form <https://docs.google.com/forms/d=1Kfg8T\_KxwIRj6YAPaQxyul\_F1Gt4si-8rNR\_qZMDgdM/viewform?usp=send\_form> to confirm your participation.

In April, you will receive an email with enrollment and payment information.

If you applied for "Option 2: Core + Practice-based curriculum", you will be contacted shortly to schedule a phone interview regarding the selection process for internships and practicums. The interview will help us determine whether there is an appropriate fit between your interests and experience and the practicum opportunities available.

Please begin making housing plans for your summer study in New York City. If you would like to live on campus, you can secure housing by visiting our Accommodations page. It is not a requirement of the program to live on campus, and you are also welcome to make arrangements independently. Please feel free to contact us for any questions about campus vs. non-campus housing.

Most institutions will honor transfer credits from the New School, however you should still consult an academic advisor at your home institution to confirm transferability of the credits and/or application to graduation requirements.

Once again, congratulations=on being selected to participate in the 2015 United Nations Summer Study Program! We look forward to welcoming you to New York City this summer.

Sincerely,

The UN Summer Study Team
