Back story: the kids have been asking me =o get horses for PA for years. I keep telling them "NO =9D. "it is too much work and we are not there enough. Period="

A few weeks ago I bought a recond=tioned old saddle at an auction, it is a work of art, heavily carved leath=r all over, silver medallions, etc. etc. just to display it. =C2 (afterwards I remembered you had one in that CT house).<=>

I was in FL last week visiting Jason. =A0 I told Jason that when he comes back to NY he will see the saddle = bought. He then asked "did you get a horse?"=C2 I said "NO, I told you we're not getting horses =80 .

He then said "wait,=you bought a saddle but no horse?. I said "yeah". =A0 He then said "You're an idiot! =9D =A0 I'm still laughing.

Last week I was having d=nner at Serena's with a lady friend. Serena came by and said=hello. The next day Serena asked me if the woman I was with wa= my date. I told her NO, she is just a friend who is a real es=ate broker and she wanted advice. Serena then asked, =80 if she is a broker why does she need your advice. I told her th=t "it wasn't for real estate advice, it was for relationsh=p advice. I'm deemed an expert". Serena =hen said "yeah, keep telling yourself that!" =C2 (with perfect delivery).
