Good evening Jeffrey,=p>

I never said nor implied that we could not=refurbish this BBJ for you.

What I did say however was that I needed a=little time to better identify what I believe to be a realistic budget so =hat what you "perceive" will be your total investment in this s/n aircraft meets your financial expectations.

You mentioned an equation of 2 – 2=5 times a Gulfstream and this is a failed equation. There is a lot t= consider – especially an unclarified modification to the bedroom / lavatory. My goal is to present you with a budgetary cost =hat reflects reality.

The one mistake that I believe you made wi=h the Gulfstream is that the project "started" at one leve= that as each went by you built upon. No offense to you (ya know I still love ya), but this is not the way a project should run, other=ise budgetary costs and down time fall by the waist side.

I will be digging into your BBJ deeper tom=rrow as I work towards a focus. Have you thought about the cabin man=gement system in the aircraft? The entertainment system? Modification items add up significantly and quickly.<=p>

Will you be available tomorrow afternoon t= talk so that I make sure that we are on the same page and that we work in=tandem to meet your expectations?

I believe that the 5 - 6M budget is reasonable, but I want to insure that we are on the same page before you make a financial commitment on this aircraft.

Eric
