gifts to sons are also different than gifts to grand=ons if they are more than 37 years younger than you. it= called generation skipping tax. . if you won the lottery =A0you would pay first income tax at fed state and city rates. =then gift tax on transfer to son, and then an addtional if to grandchildr=n. you could give someone the right to buy you out if they thought =ou were crazy, but if you didn't they would have to sue you and that w=ll take 5 years.

Jeffrey,

Attached are my though=s from the question you posed to me yesterday.

Obviously thi= will not work for all your clients, but maybe a few could benefit from th= idea.

I would love your feedback.=u>

Good talking with you yesterday.

See you soon.=u>
