Dear Jeffrey,

I managed to visit this house earlier today with a Turkish friend (an=architect) who is friendly with the architect who designed it.

I was blown away and I have seen some amazing properties i= my life. This unquestionably is one of the most incredible. The gard=ns are also extraordinary. I have never seen such a high standard of workma=ship and detailing. As the architect explained to us, this standard of work=can never be repeated as many of the older craftsmen have since died and no=one today has their skills. I would change some of the fabrics, improve the=lighting but leave the rest untouched.

It ha= 4 suites in the main house and a further 4 suites in the guest house, whic= is only partly completed awaiting the directions of the new purchaser.&nbs=; So you will never have room to invite a football team to stay, even if yo= could invite 300 for dinner and lose them!

Howeve=, it's a home which could impress any Head of State. The price at 45m Euros=seemed high until I saw it with my own eyes. The photos do nothing for it. I=’s not remotely flash, far removed from the flashy palaces of Saudi Arabia a=d the Gulf. This is a home fit for the Duke of Devonshire or a Rothschild. V=ry sophisticated taste.

We have two options, shoul= you decide to visit. We can go with the registered agent Marc Leon of Chri=ties/Kensington Properties or if you prefer we can do so privately with my T=rkish friend.

Let me know your thoughts.

Can't wait to see you!

Mark
