spoke with dealer and car is currently in Elizabeth, NJ they made special request to pull and should have at dealer in NJ by Saturday or Monday car will be ready for pickup either Tuesday or Wednesday next week i spoke with dealers recommended vendor for Lights who handles a lot of lights for NJ police departments Scott, the owner, is going to send me some samples for your review today Scott also mentioned that using red and blue lights will cause trouble with local police as they require a license..

do you want lights to be on roof only? or headlamps as well ? or tail lights as well also do you want car to go directly to light vendor or shall we pickup and do at a later date after you use car..

please advise
