There is just one thing I really don't understand. Your assistants in NY don't have a job that pays the rent because they don't pay it and are taking art classes which is more of a hobby. They chose a class they enjoy. When I asked you if I could do an art or photography class which is my passion you told me it's the prescription of failure and doing what you enjoy in life is childish and stupid. In parallel, I need to work doing things I don't like while they are taking classes they enjoy without having to pay a rent. I guess they are also living in a "make believe world". I really can't explain this total contradiction.

what is stupid about it ? You said I needed a job that pays = rent and a living because mine is not well paid. I agree, but I haven't found any better offer.
