Jeffrey,

Heli progress is slow, we are planning Engine l=ak check runs tomorrow afternoon, and Tail Rotor tracking,Appea=s blade tracking Thur and hopefully Completion Friday,

For planning purposes:

should I plan to use Chip for =hursday's trip to LSJ so I can blade track Thursday? Or do y=u prefer me to Fly G550 trip Thursday?

I♦=80♦ll know more tomorrow afternoon, during Engine runs,,

Message from Dave Butch / Manager at Bell FXE:

Hello Larry,

tomorrow afternoon possibly balance a drive shaft and tai= rotor.

As for the main rotor track and balance more like Thursday afternoon, and since the head was completely apart =nd we changed out the shear bearings and replaced tape on main rotor blade= I would plan for a couple days of track and balance...

Kind Regards=,

DAVID BURCH
