Dear Jeffrey, last year my laptop started giving me problems and =ames said that it has outlived its life expectancy and he didn't know =f I would make it to spring when the new ones will come out. He said someting about laptops doing a certain amount of something in their lifetime (=ounds or circles or loops or something) and mine had done more.

I now should download Adobe creative suite for my class and laptop can'= hold it.

Do you think it would be possible for me to get a new one?

If not I understand :)

Thank you

Come home soon
