Martin:

Thanks so much. This scenario gets sadder every day. My brother obviously is broke.

I will tell you why I find his life story so pathetic.

In 1905 my paternal grandfather came to America to escape persecution. He worked 24/7 his entire life and died a proud rich man. His two sons devoted to him and the American dream worked 24/7 and accomplished more beyond by grandfather's wildest dreams. My father and uncle, between them, educated five children that carry the Siegal name. I am the fourth and Gary the fifth.

The 70th anniversary of the liberation of the concentration camps were international headlines this week as anti-semitism is on the rise.

One generation died in Europe and two generations spent every day of their lives proving they were smarter creating a more dignified life for the next generation in this country.

My brother pisses on that responsibility to accomplish. This is what makes me sick and sad at the same time.

Thank you for understanding the emotion I suppress to deal with the facts. = Peggy
