I vehemently deny any allegations that I so called "=helped procure" prostitutes for JE. I used to be an executive assista=t who scheduled appointments for Mr E; some of these appointments were fo= massages. I was never privy to what took place during those massages. I n=ver had anyone complain to me that something untoward was happening, nor d=d I ever witnesses anything questionable take place. I had never seen any =f these masseuses before until they arrived at the house of their own acco=d; they certainly did not look underage to me. I knew nothing about them. = never spoke to them other than to schedule massage appointments. I'm =orry if these women now regret their actions and professions, but I had no=hing to do with it. I'm sure the allure of making millions off their r=grettable decisions is enticing, especially when their lawyers are willing=to work for free to make a name for themselves. I have been unfairly victi=ized by these Jane Does, whom I don't even know who they are, their la=yers, and by the media making up endless lies about me and making up outra=eous allegations all because I followed the advice of my lawyers to plead =he Fifth for every single question asked of me, even a question as =imple as "what is your name?" I plead the Fifth on, in a civil s=it which I was subpoenaed for. I was a young woman whom all of a sudden my=name was caught up in something which I had no involvement with. I wanted =othing more than to answer all the questions asked of me by those unscrupu=ous lawyers, but felt it was best to follow the advice of my own lawyers t= plead the Fifth; what did I know about the legal system? So that's wh=t I did and am still paying the price 9 years later. I'm tired of allo=ing the media to abuse me to sell newspapers and not defending myself agai=st it.

True, I once=worked for JE and lived in an apt on 66th St. I started my [REDACTED]=business in 2006 while also working for JE. Since I couldn't afford a =separate office at the time, I used my home address for my business address= I no longer live at that address, nor have I conducted business from that=address for many years.

Yes, I changed my l=st name because I wanted to distance myself from my family who disowned me=over not being the same religion as them. It was too painful for me to use=the same last name as parents and siblings who didn't want me to be a =art of their family anymore. If your family wasn't willing to sp=ak to you over not wanting to be a Jehovah's Witness, would you want t= keep the same last name as them?

Yes, I was marr=ed once before to my first boyfriend when I was a 17 year old woman. My fa=ily's religion didn't allow me to date, so getting married was the=only way to have a normal relationship with a man. This lasted 4 years until he filed for divorce. Divorce is not allowed in the religion, thus the elders "disfellowshipped" me from the congregation. My family stop=ed speaking to me, and all of my friends from childhood never spoke to me =gain.

If the press can't even get these=simple facts correct, how can we believe anything else they are writing ab=ut?
