Greetings Sir,

[REDACTED] came to me today to repor= that she grazed the side of the Caravan this morning while returning to t=e underground parking lot. She is very sorry.

I am presuming that she told me, as opposed to Cecile, as the Caravan is=registered LSJE, but I have asked [REDACTED] a to let Cecile know directly, as p=rt of protocol. I am presuming that she informed Anna when she saw her thi= morning at the office.

As it happens, at s=me point recently, unbeknownst to everyone until Jermaine reported it, the=Caravan suffered similar damage on the other side of the body.

May I have Jermaine take it in to Cliff's Body Shop=to obtain a quote for the repairs?

Respectfully,<=r>

Daphne
