Dear Jeffrey,

I was walking back home tonight, as my feet somehow turned onto the 71st street and here I was standing in front of your house. I was feeling some kind of a strong wish to stop by to check how you were doing and to wish you a good night rest..

Unfortunately, I found none at the house and I guess you are probably out of the city.. Anyway, I would still like to wish you a good night and to send you a very bright smile!!
