Subject: Re: hello from monaco. [REDACTED]. Then lets get me a job in Credit Suisse Zurich.

It is [REDACTED] s phone number. You could talk to her abt the job of assistant, she prefers speaking russian i understood, maybe [REDACTED] can talk to her

[REDACTED]
First questions of hers were how you make her a work visa in Usa. She sounds interested for December or so, not straight away

Jeffrey, could you tell me what you think of situation and how to get me the job despite the constraints? What arguments will you invent for meeting with Nikolaus in Nov ? The job is to start in December.

Nikolaus whom i met only by phone (was connected to him by a client of his), the investment partner (director of 35 relationship managers from Credit Suisse Zurich) found for me a vacancy in his bank, a client manager for Russian speaking ultra high wealth individuals. His teams manages money of 85 out of 100 Forbes Russian Oligarchs. Then, Frank, who flew [REDACTED] to Monaco, called up his banker at Credit suisse Zurich to recommend me for this job. Consequently, Nikolaus boss looked on my CV second time, hearing about my candidature from Nikolaus first, them from Frank's banker.

The biggest boss said that my profile is interesting but I lack experience (they want someone with 3-4 years, from bank) and Switzerland is tight with work permits for juniors like me, because of my Russian passport.

Nikolaus wants to meet me in person in Nov and tells me to convince him that i am good for this job (he will be my direct boss) despite my lack of experience. So he will be able to promote me internally.

Following email gives more info.

Kind regards/Cordialement,
