Hello =arry,

Yes you are correct, diligently working on your custom build. I will have a full drawing for you shortly. You gave me enough information to proceed with the design as well as adding my own design ideas.

Kind regards,

Hello Jerry.,
Hope this email finds you well.

I know you have been working our custom build.
Just checking if you have any questions and how the sketches are coming along., Even rough drawings I can fwd to Mr E could be great, to show we are all on same page, if you have some renderings to share?

Keep us posted to your designs.,

Thank you
