Good morning Sneaky,

Hope you slept well :)

I forgot=to tell you last night I mean I didn't have a chance to...

I had only $100 cash on me so I took from your bag another =100 to pay for that screen in the hall way. There was only one envelope an= it was written as for Richard khan I believe. I think it was for somethin= important so just to remind and make sure you know that $100 is missing f=om that amount of money.
