Since there has been a legalistic approach by the children, couldn't the phrase below be used by them to prove their arguments.

"10. (...)=C2 To the=contrary, the Parties expressly and specifically deny any such wrongdoing or liability."

In the paragraph:

<=p>

=span style="font-family:Cambria">"10. =C2 Settlement is Not an Admission. =The Parties understand and agree that the terms of this Agreement, and the settlement provided for herein, are intended to compromise disputed claims, to avoid litigation, and to buy peace, and that this Agreement and the settlement provided for herein do not constitute and shall not be construed or viewed as an admission by any Party of wrongdoing or of liability. To the contrary, the Parties expressly and specifically deny any such wrongdoing or liability.&q=ot;

We're glad to know you are better.

OK.=C2 Just for the records, The [REDACTED] Trusts are also being managed by [REDACTED] but they were not included in the agreement. I assume because [REDACTED] are the trustees and the ones who manage the [REDACTED] Trusts. Is this correct?
