Davis responded that the Marc=ant case was “uncharted territory” for the NSF and highlighted gaps in communication between different branches of the NSF—gaps the agency is now trying to plug. She stated that e=ery sexual harassment case reported to the NSF now will be coordinated with her office. She also affirmed the NSF’s goal to be more proactive i= documenting cases, disclosing that the agency was made aware of an university placing a faculty member on administrative leave pending an investigation just this past Thursday. Within two hours, Davis said, her office had assembled a team to look into the matter and updated its database with information about the case.

Last Thursday was also the d=y that BuzzFeed News published <https://www.buzzfeed.com/peteraldhous/lawrence-krauss-sexual-harassment-allegations?utm\_term=.suXWq5O5Z#.lkyPm8Y87> its investigative article detailing a decade-long history of sexual misconduct claims alleged against Lawrence Krauss, a theoretical physicist at Arizona State University. The university has since said in a statement that it is investigating the matter, but did not announce any administrative actions taken against him. Other scientific organizations have since begun <<https://gizmodo.com/science-organization-cancel-lawrence-krauss-events-aft-1823280632>> to blacklist Krauss from their events.

Sun Devils Against Sexual Assault, an survivor-activist organization at Arizona State University, did however start a Change.org <<http://Change.org>> <<https://www.change.org/p/asu-fire-lawrence-krauss-for-decades-of-sexual-misconduct>>
