Hi Jeffery, I spoke to a company in Miami that specializes in Caterpillar generators for marine and land use.

They can service and repair/rebuild any generator but they need to know serial numbers and a brief description of the current status.&nb=p;

With this info they can schedule a visit to the=island to do a proper assessment and proposal.

Who can provide me with that info?

Agreed; we are still working while we wait for the proposals. We are finishing up the 3D models and dimensioning the future buildings. We will have progress next week.
