= agree, lets try to keep him at home. His dignity is shot and his si=uation is irrevsersable. Let him stay in his own bed and pass in pea=e. This is still so surreal to me.

Very=generous of you . He probably should be in a facility but he wanted t= die at home. I'm hoping with basic 24 hour/around the clock assi=tance; the hospice team as needed, and my talking to her [REDACTED] will get th=ough it. If it becomes intolerable and he is truly out of it I'm =ure he can be moved. For now lets try to follow his request.=u>
