Dear Rachel:

Amidst the current uproar and consternation over the recent Buzzfeed=allegations about me, I know that many Bulletin subscribers and fans are u=derstandably feeling shocked and upset. I want to assure them, and =ou, that the story is incorrect. As you know, I denied the allegatio=s in the story, about which I and various organizations I am affiliated wi=h provided clear counter-evidence which was ignored or distorted during th= six months that Buzzfeed harassed me and my colleagues with false claims.=C2 I understand from you that in all my time with the Bulletin, no one =as made any complaints about me or my professionalism or about me personal=y. Nevertheless, the work of the Bulletin is very important, =nd I don't want the distraction of this current frenzy to interfer= with its work. Therefore I would like to take a leave of absence as=Chair of the Board until clearer heads prevail, and a careful assessment o= the facts has been completed by the various organizations I am affiliated=with, including the Bulletin, has been completed. I look forward to =eturning to our work together at that time. It has been a pleasure a=d a privilege to lead the Board of Sponsors and to work with you and our c=olleagues at the Bulletin, and I can't wait to return.
