Dear Rachel:

Amidst the current uproar and consternation over the recent Buzzfeed article about me, I know that many Bulletin subscribers and =ans are feeling shocked upon hearing about it. I want to assure =hem, and you, that the story is wholly incorrect. As you know, I =aintain that the salacious claims in the story are false, and I and =arious organizations I am affiliated with provided clear =counter-evidence which was ignored during the six months that Buzzfeed =arassed me and my colleagues with false claims. I understand from =ou that in all my time with the Bulletin, no one has made any =omplaints about me or my professionalism or about me personally. =nbsp;Nevertheless, the good work of the Bulletin must guide us both. =herefore I have decided to take a leave of absence as Chair of the =oard until clearer heads prevail, and a careful assessment of the facts =as been completed by the various organizations I am affiliated with, =ncluding the Bulletin. I look forward to returning to our work =ogether at that time.

Lawrence
