Dear Rachel=

Amidst the current uproar and consternation over the recent BuzzFeed article about me, I know that many Bulletin subscribers and fans are feeling shocked upon hearing about it. I want to assure them, and you, that the story is wholly incorrect. As you know, I maintain that the salacious claims in the story are false, and I and various organizations I am affiliated with provided clear counter-evidence which was ignored during the six months that Buzzfeed harassed me and my colleagues with false claims. I understand from you that in all my time with the Bulletin, no one has made any complaints about me or my professionalism or about me personally. Nevertheless, the good work of the Bulletin must guide us both. Therefore I have decided to take a leave of absence as Chair of the Board until clearer heads prevail, and a careful assessment of the facts has been completed by the various organizations I am affiliated with, including the Bulletin. I look forward to returning to our work together at that time.

Lawrence
