Hello,

how are you? I haven't been around the east coast much hence I've dropped a bit off the map= that should change in a few months.

Anyway, I'm looking at potentiall= investing into a company called Rubica and apparently Bill Gates' fam=ly office is leading the round. Do I remember correctly that you know the =erson that runs that? If so, any chance I can talk to him about this compa=y?

Th=nk you,
Vincenzo
