Good morning!

Yes I did all this stuff, I had my consultaton the day before yesterday and they said they should take off one tooth and make braces for two jaws upper and low. I was dissapointed because my mouth will full of this mess but they said that there is no sence to put it on upper one only. they said upper one should be ceramic and lower steel. all the procedures will be 4100 $ for both of them and half year service included. I even took the document.and I took the payment sheet from my university I signed a paper that I can pay later I opened the bank account but they said if the person want to make the transfer it is better to do by western union online, because there are a lot of problems with [REDACTED] concerning transactions from abroad and getting cash, banks always say there is no cash right now either make very big percent.
