Hi Jeffrey

How are you doing? Today is a Men=s day in Russia. <https://www.tripsavvy.com/mens-day-in-russia-february-23-1622488> <<https://www.tripsavvy.com/mens-day-in-russia-february-23-1622488>>

Interesting holiday, they might even have a day off for it. 8 March is a pu=lic holiday in Russia for instance.

I am in San Francisco after almos= a month in Zurich, Davos for WEF, Moscow, London.

I heard you get along very well w=th [REDACTED]

Did one of her friends, [REDACTED], you met got her visa and can work for you as a PA ?

It is a super tough to work for a tough lady [REDACTED] in a silicon valley=VC.

I struggle to find a startup she likes and wants to invest in (very subject=ve since we all have different tastes) and I am even more useless to find =er investors for the fund. Her will and determination to raise a big fund =s just so so strong and impressive, and I do my best to help.. I would not side track for a VC work if not her=personality and work ethics.

She is like you in many ways [REDACTED] finds interesting for her people, belie=es in them and invests her energy, money, time, to make something out of t=em. Interesting approach and hopefully it can work.

Some news from the other side... =ope you are healthy, smily and happy, dear Jeffrey

lots of love
