Jeffery

I am confused why you are so frustrated

You asked me to go to the island with no real brief..just to take in what i= going on

I had proactively put some images together so we could discuss some options/=deas on my return

I met with you and gave you my thoughts..which you liked

You asked for a proposal based on my observations regarding lack of process=organization and information on island

That's what I did,hoping from there we could start to help

I will be in touch with Garry and get him sorted out

Please send me a list of what you would like me to start on...design or man=gement

Just trying to be successful for you so please try and be clear with me

Thank you
