Warren Cat is still working on the quote. I have asked that =eparate line item figures be added for a quick ship option, if =vailable, and also if available, a hazardous location/marine =nvironment option for durability.
I have been calling the =ales rep every day for updates and am sure he will not hesitate to get =e the quote asap so as to stop me harassing him.
There =re several misc. items on order with a separate dept. but nothing that =ill hold up the work.

please update status on receiving quote and if in stock...=f not in stock how long for us to receive?

is there =nything other than back end that we need for generators 1 & 2 to =et them back to performing well for us..

please advise
thank you
