You used Gmail l=s "Open as a Google document" link to view the attachment calle= "History".

By doing this you saved an editable copy online at Google Docs:
http://docs.google.com/Doc?id=dckvnmhm\_6hhrphvwh&=btr=EmailImport

Google Docs allows you to:

- * Create and edit documents, spr=adsheets and presentations online, from anywhere you have Internet access.=br>
- * Share documents with others, even collaborating on the =ame document at once, in real time.
- * Know that your documents are safe. Since your content is st=red on Google's secure servers, even if something happens to your hard=drive, your documents are protected.

You can always get back to G=ogle Docs directly at <<http://docs.google.com>>
