Dear Dear Jeffrey!

As I promised to send you some pictures, I'm sending. But my laptop is still in repair store, as soon as they fix it I will send you some really good pictures. Hope, you enjoy these also. And I've just seen a documentary movie called "Zeitgeist" ("The Spirit of the Times") from Peter Joseph, it is about God, 9/11 and banking system. I really liked it. I think nothing from this movie would be new for you, but there is still an interesting facts, if you have a chance watch it.

Have a good night,
Sweet dreams,
Miss you,
Love you
Me and Myself
