i am well aware of what i said,, and you otherwise show your appreciation b= what?, doing what.? i have asked what you actually do, but you think t=at question is out of bounds. half the time , you are in a funky mood beca=se you want to complain about someone or something, you sit during medicin= and say and do nothing, you get upset when i say i am bored. and conti=ue on the same exact negative track. I have asked you to ask christine to =elp you understand, that doing very little and expecting very much is not =eality. I am not a maid ,, sums it up.

You asked me a very specific question- 'When did you say thank you?'= not 'Do you appreciate what I provide for you?'

I say thank you when you do something nice - like leaning over to kiss me, =he little gap shoes, flying, classics- And every day I appreciate you prov=ding a comfortable life for me..
