the reason I tried to contact you this morning was to discuss whether =r not the project is going forward.

Its in both our interests to make a decision as soon as possible and=20 discuss the open issues. In addition, I need to deal with the logistics including the scheduling of the people who will be involved which includes=20 removing them from any active assign they may now be working on. Should you=20 decide not to proceed, please understand that I am available to you to fill=any role you may need.

Any changes in my proposal is certainly open for discussion.
