Jeffrey,

Option #1

Purchase a Sony, Yamaha or Dennon receiver, which ever I can get the best price at Audio Advisors, if they take the speaker Bar as trade-in.

Keep the Velodyne subwoofer,

-use the White NHT for rear surround speakers that we already own, with a wireless speaker kit, photo below.

NHT's newest, and best mini-monitor to date, the Absolute Zero combines NHT's new 5.25&quo=; woofer and 1" aluminum dome tweeter to make beautiful music together. E=sily wall mounted using the threaded insert on the rear panel, or place it on a=20 shelf or stand with the user installed cabinet rails. The Absolute Ze=o has a frequency response of 71Hz-20kHz and a sensitivity of 86dB. Available in High Gloss Black or White.

We already own these NHT Rear surround speakers in White,,,we have in garage in PBI house:
they where used in LSJ some time ago, still great speakers, I would use the Rocketfish Universal wireless speaker kit for rear surround speakers installation.
