Subject: Ceiling.

We have to decide on a few things, as the painted ceiling. I sent you an invoice from Meriguet for 90.000 euros, for faux painting the four panels. These are fau= moldings and coffers, with the central part in an irregular blue that goes =rom light to dark. The invoice was sent to you July 6th.

I just spoke with Monpoint, who is working here in New York for me, (he is =he artist who did the central panel) and for continuing the ceiling in its 4 sides, simplified and less busy than the centre, he would do it for 100 000 euros, although we need to do the installation apart. (shouldn't be exp=nsive). .In my opinion,as this was the original project, close as you have it in the rendering, it would complete the ceiling as it should be. As a third option, Fancelli could do it in wood, but this will be as much as twice in cost, and not the best solution, and if you decide on painters in-situ, jus= the scaffolding will cost more than 25.000 US.

Do not forget also that you have not ordered the leather for the shutters, =t was invoiced again July 6th. Remember that the shutters are not finished, t=ey were built for leather.

Fancelli revised his travel expenses and came down to 8.000 euros max, for =his his last trip. Please advice.J.P.
