[REDACTED] was kind enough to call... but I'm in Copenhagen now so it's not easy to call back immediately...

Turns out Michael Wolff is here... sporting a lovely young girlfriend. Impressive.

Spent time speaking with Vint Cerf (who is fun) and Julian Assange, the disruptive journalist behind WikiLeaks... which is a cool concept... public site for leaking "secret" documents the government should have released anyway. (He's a bit paranoid, but their effort provides me with loads of lessons related to web-based internet whistleblowing... and government efforts to foil that.
