Hi Russell,

Attached are the images we are developing. There are things that need to be added and adjusted.

Doors in each arch

Plantings for the visual buffer between the M= and Pool

We are starting the final=concept which is to remove the arches between the main house and pool but we will have the pergola instead. It was an idea we discussed and should be seen= These will be more complete on Tuesday. We also will show an option where we= drop the pool, although it may not be necessary.

I like where these are going, I think we need to move the structure away from the house a few feet, which is a minor adjustment.

Thanks,

Bryan
