don't confuse lack of spin trap knoweldge with science,, it is mere eng=neering. its the theory of why so many free radicals. their various roles,=a necessary but troublesome component. ITs the theory that is fun, are =he radicals physical , or eletrical hooks , are they merely to catch , li=e fish, help combine like legos. , better question what to the COST of FRE= radicals. sounds like a daily news headline

How are you?

Today Boris and I had a 4 hour meeting with bill tossing around ideas.=It was fun but not nearly as fun as the old days when you used to know you= science.

Ha ha.

Thought of you because I was trying to explain spin traps and the diff=rence between fructose and glucose and it was a challenge.

Miss those days!!!
