Hey Bossman,

Just a heads up....

Yesterday was a disaster between Bubbler, his Barge Captain Tony and myself. They're upset because I went to the barge ramp and instruct all vehicles and truckers to get off of there Barge until our LSJ barge trip was done. The trip was done but unfortunately, I upset Port Authority, everyone at the St. Thomas port and Mr. Bubbler's staff.

I'm meeting with Mr. Bubbler today to discuss a permanent schedule that doesn't effect Port Authority traffic or LSJ runs. I'll ask him to send everyone an email so he can take responsibility for his scheduling since things aren't working out as planned

This morning I asked The General for another run and his Barge Captain sent me these screen shots from Facebook.
