Do you want to get a contract for only the "Conceptual Design" phase or for the entire "Construction Documents" package at this time?

Attached is Marmol Radzi=er's updated proposal. (I have also attached their original proposal with a total fee of $175K). Basically what I asked them to do is change the proposal to include a "Conceptual D=sign" phase of work. Their proposed fee is $32,000 for Conceptual Design plus = $5,000 Initial Payment. I think that it would be great for them to be on the island when you are there if you think it would help. Let me know if you are in agreement. I have already asked them to look into flights. </=pan>
